Meridian Compensation Partners Announces the Opening of its San Francisco Office

LAKE FOREST, ILL. — May 11, 2015 — Meridian Compensation Partners, LLC, a leading executive compensation and corporate governance consulting firm, announced today the opening of its San Francisco office, Meridian's ninth location in North America.

Leading Meridian's presence in San Francisco is Matthew (Matt) Isakson, Lead Consultant. Matt has been with Meridian since the firm's founding in 2010, and has broad experience advising compensation committees and senior management on a wide range of executive compensation matters. Industries Matt has worked with include energy and utilities, medical technology, pharmaceuticals, retail, transportation, and technology. Matt is also a frequent speaker in governance forums, providing his perspective on a variety of compensation and governance issues.

According to Jim Wolf, Co-managing Partner, "We're delighted to add a local presence in California to better serve our relationships in the West, and we're excited to have Matt lead our growth in the region."
